2018 Design Awards

CALL FOR ENTRIES – 2018 Rick & Duffy Monahon Award for Design Excellence in Architectural Restoration and Preservation

This award was established in 2014 in honor of Rick and Duffy Monahon as a way to recognize their extraordinary contribution to architecture and preservation in New Hampshire. The award promotes outstanding and exemplary historic preservation projects as defined by their sensitivity to an historic structure and its surrounding environment; the quality of architecture, workmanship, and materials; as well as the degree of challenge or accomplishment and the level of community support for the project.

SUBMISSION SUPPORT

It is recommended to use Chrome or Firefox browsers for submissions made through Submittable.

If you encounter technical difficulty with your awards submission, please contact: Submittable Tech Support at: (855) 467-8264, ext. 2 or support@submittable.com. Non-technical questions about awards can be addressed to: Bonnie Kastel, bkastel@aianh.org.

SUBMISSION DEADLINE

Friday, October 27, 2017, 5 PM

All submissions must be complete by this date. Your submission will be received by AIANH after payment has been made. If your submission fee has not been paid, AIANH will not see or have any record of your submission. Once your submission fee is paid, your submission cannot be edited. Prior to that point, drafts may be saved to your Submittable account and modifications made.

You may submit multiple projects to this awards program. Each project must be submitted and paid for separately. If you submit multiple projects, remember to select the discounted, subsequent entry fee after the first entry.

NOTIFICATION OF AWARDS

Award winners will be notified after November 13 and awards will be conferred on Friday, January 5, 2018 at the AIA New Hampshire Annual Meeting and Awards Banquet at the Currier Museum of Art in Manchester, NH. Registration for the Annual Meeting and Awards Banquet will open later in the fall.

ELIGIBILITY

The following project types are eligible:

- Sensitive Addition/Alteration: a project that successfully integrates an addition/alteration within the architectural style of a building and complements the context and character of an historic district, neighborhood, or specific area.
- Adaptive Reuse: a project that creatively achieved the reuse of an existing structure originally used for another purpose. The project must have undertaken at least substantial rehabilitation.
- Appropriate New Construction: a new structure that, through its design and use of building materials, enhances the quality of the built environment. The project must have a positive impact on its immediate surroundings, including historic district, neighborhood or specific area.
- Innovative Solutions in Preservation: Showing sensitive and creative solutions incorporating issues of sustainability, adaptive reuse and integration of accessibility improvements.

Projects must be located in New Hampshire. The Secretary of the Interior's Standards for Rehabilitation and the Guidelines for Rehabilitating Historic Buildings will be considered in evaluation for this award.

Only one project will receive this award in a given year. The jury may elect to not present this award to any of the submissions in this category.

CRITERIA

The jurors' decisions will be based on the materials submitted.

FEES

First project entry: $220 ($160 + $60 for presentation board production)

Additional project entries: $185 ($125 + $60 for presentation board production)

Each project submission requires a presentation board that will be used for display during the Awards Banquet and, thereafter, on tour throughout New Hampshire during 2018.

All fees are not refundable and must be paid online via credit card at time of submission. Submissions cannot be received and marked complete until payment is made.

SUBMISSION REQUIREMENTS

All submissions for the 2018 AIA New England Design Awards must be digital and submitted by Friday, October 27, 2017, 5 PM. No binders will be accepted. The decisions of the jurors will be based solely on the materials submitted.
